REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN.

AUGUST 1, 1902—JULY 31, 1903.

To the President and Fellows of Yale University:

GENTLEMEN:—During the year ending July 31, 1903, the increase of the Library by purchase has been 7,836 volumes, including 602 volumes placed in the Linonian and Brothers Library, and by gift 4,616 volumes and 7,790 pamphlets.

Within the year the Edward Wells Southworth bequest has been paid into the Treasury and is found to amount to $140,000.

The late Sherman Hartwell Chapman, M.D. (Y. C. 1866), bequeathed to the University his medical library, an unusually valuable collection of about 500 volumes. In it are included Virchow's Archiv für pathologische Anatomie und Physiologie, complete to 1897, in 150 volumes, Hebra's Atlas der Hautkrankheiten, and other costly publications.

The following gifts also are deserving of special mention:

From Miss Emma Brace.—Thirty-six volumes of pamphlets collected by Jonathan P. Brace of Litchfield, Conn., and his son Charles L. Brace.

From Professor William H. Brewer.—One hundred and eighty-six volumes, including a valuable collection of works on the Horse from the sixteenth century down.

From Professor John E. Clark.—Two hundred and thirty-nine volumes, chiefly periodicals.

From Professor Henry W. Farnam.—Sammlung nationalökonomischer und statistischer Abhandlungen des staatswissenschaftlichen Seminars zu Halle, 42 vols., and forty-two other volumes.

From President Daniel C. Gilman.—Twenty-six valuable autograph letters addressed to Dr. David F. Bacon.

From Mr. Archer M. Huntington, of New York.—Eleven of his privately issued facsimile reproductions of rare Spanish works.

From the family of Gov. Ingersoll.—Valuable manuscript letters and documents.

From the estate of William Lampson (Y. C. 1862).—Eleven hundred and forty volumes.

From Mr. Henry B. Loomis.—Sixty-eight miscellaneous volumes.

From the Duc de Loubat.—Codex Vaticanus No. 3773, eine altmexikanische Bilderschrift, the sixth of the series of these reproductions for which we are indebted to him.

From Mr. William Baldwin Ross, of New York.—A complete set of the N. Y. Genealogical and Biographical Record, 34 vols., and Bulletin of the American Geographical Society, 1876-1903.

From Professor John C. Schwab.—Four volumes of MS. correspondence and other memorials of the Yale Bicentennial Celebration.

From Professor W. Gilman Thompson, M.D., of New York.—Twenty-eight valuable autograph letters addressed to his father, the Rev. Joseph P. Thompson, D.D.

From Dean Francis Wayland.—Two hundred and fifty-four miscellaneous volumes.

From Mr. John Howard Webster, of Cleveland, O.—Six volumes, in continuation, of the publications of the Rowfant Club.

Among the more important purchases of the year are the following:

Encyclopædia Britannica, vol. 25-35; New international encyclopædia, 17 vols.; International catalogue of scientific papers, 1901, 17 vols.; Morgan, Mission scientifique en Perse, 4 vols., 4°; Tavole dipinte di biccherna e di gabella del R. Archivio di Stato di Siena, 4°; Monte dei Paschi, Siena, 6 vols., 4°; Annalen des deutschen Reichs, 39 vols.; Wurzbach, Biographisches Lexikon des Kaiserthums Oesterreich, 60 vols.; Seidlitz, Allgemeines historisches Porträt-werk, 6 vols., 4°; Werckmeister, Das neunzehnte Jahrhundert in Bildnissen, 5 vols., 4°; British and foreign state papers, 1812-1856, 46 vols.; Sir James Hare, Whole works concerning Ireland, 2 vols., fol.; Records of the Reformed Dutch Church in New York, Baptisms, 2 vols.; works on the history and languages of the Philippines, printed in the Islands, 103 vols.; Corpus inscriptionum semiticarum, 5 vols., fol.; Codices Graeci et Latini photographice depicti, vol. 8, Terentius; Codex Venetus Aristophanis, in photographic facsimile; Revue des langues romanes, 45 vols.; Revue hispanique, 9 vols.; Allemania, 26 vols.; Platzmann, various publications on the American languages, 21 vols.; Waldstein, Argive Heraeum, vol. 1; Schultz and Barnsley, Byzantine architecture in Greece, fol.; Roller, Les catacombes de Rome, 2 vols., fol.; Le Tarouilly, Édifices de Rome moderne, 4 vols., 4° and fol.; Feasey, Westminster Abbey, 4°; Cust, Anthony Van Dyck, 4°; Armstrong, Sir Joshua Reynolds, Sir Henry Raeburn, 2 vols., 4°; Coussemaker, Scriptores de musica medii aevi, 4 vols., 4°; Assemani, Codex liturgicus, 13 vols., 4°; Haag, La France protestante, 9 vols.; Atti della giunta per l'inchiesta agraria, Roma, 15 vols., 4°; Journal of the British Astronomical Association, 12 vols.; Proceedings of the Chemical Society of London, 17 vols.; Biologisches Centralblatt, 19 vols.; Sargent, Silva of North America, vols. 13, 14; Van Heurck, Synopsis des Diatomées de Belgique; Revue maritime, 103 vols.; Parliamentary papers of Great Britain, session 1900, 1901, 198 vols.; Illustrazione Italiana, 1877-1901, 45 vols.; Charivari, 1842-1872, 114 vols.; Dublin Evening Post, 1801-1844, 34 vols.; autograph letter of Dr. Isaac Watts to Rector Williams, dated Aug. 16, 1734, concerning gift of globes to Yale College.

The Library force suffered a most serious loss in the death, on the 13th of February, 1903, of Mr. Joel Sumner Smith, Assistant Librarian. A member of the class of 1853, which this year celebrated its fiftieth anniversary, Mr. Smith remained in New Haven after his graduation and for twenty years devoted himself to the study and teaching of music. The gift of the Lowell Mason Library to the Divinity School prompted him to undertake, entirely without compensation, a catalogue of that collection. For more than three years he gave to this task an average of four hours a day, and though a difficult piece of catalogue work as well as his first essay, like everything which he undertook it was admirably done and still remains a model of accuracy and of neatness of execution. In 1875 he accepted the care of the Linonian and Brothers Library, to which was later added employment in the University Library, and he gradually withdrew from teaching. In 1895 he became Assistant Librarian and the remainder of his life was spent in the service of the University Library; and how devoted and untiring that service was, only his associates have known.

But Mr. Smith had still other claims to our admiration, which his morbid shrinking from publicity did not suffer to be made known during his life. Having become greatly interested in the study of Russian, he began about 1886 to make a collection of Russian books, and for the next ten years devoted to it a large part of his salary. When it had reached such completeness as he felt able to give it, and numbered some six thousand volumes, he printed an anonymous "Catalogue of books" and gave the whole, under the strictest pledge of silence, to the University.

Then his old interest in the study of music and especially of its history, grew strong upon him again, and in the last three reports of the Library anonymous gifts for this department, amounting in the aggregate to more than two thousand dollars, have been announced. On the Slavonic and Musical departments together he had expended nearly twelve thousand dollars.

Such self-sacrificing devotion deserves to be commemorated in the University by a lasting memorial. None could be more appropriate than a fund for the increase of one or both these departments of the Library. On yet another ground such a fund makes appeal to us. While Mr. Smith was carrying out his generous plans he had reason to think that the modest property of his wife would afford her a comfortable support if she should survive him. But in this property, as we now learn, recent losses have made serious inroads, and it is only just to his memory and to her that the first use of the income of the fund should be to relieve her anxieties for the future.

This suggestion met with so ready a response in New Haven, where more than twenty-five hundred dollars was promptly contributed, that it seemed not unreasonable to hope for a fund which should equal the amount of Mr. Smith's gifts. At present it barely reaches the sum of three thousand dollars, and further contributions, which may be sent to the Treasurer of the University, are earnestly desired.

To relieve the overcrowded condition of the Library building, it has been found necessary to place on the top of the cases on the second and third floors of the new wing additional shelves, not contemplated in the original plan. In this way, with some loss of convenience of access, and also of light, compensated in part by the introduction of electric lights, provision has been made for fifty or sixty thousand additional volumes. All this, however, will be needed for the present accommodation and the growth in the near future of the collections already placed there, leaving the congestion elsewhere unrelieved.

The printed catalogue cards of the Library of Congress continue to render an increasing service, and of the issues of the past year thirteen thousand have been put to use.

The course of bibliographical lectures offered again by Mr. Keogh was followed by about the same number of graduate students as last year, fifty.

Respectfully submitted,

ADDISON VAN NAME.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE LAW SCHOOL

AUGUST 1, 1902—JULY 31, 1903.

To the President and Fellows of Yale University:

GENTLEMEN :—During the year ending July 31, 1903, 894 volumes and 36 pamphlets have been added to the Library. Of these, 432 volumes and 29 pamphlets were gifts. Among the gifts were: Dwight's Travels, 4 volumes, and Dexter's Yale Biographies and Annals, 3 volumes, from Professor Simeon E. Baldwin; 8 volumes of the Reports of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals of Missouri, from M. Dwight Collier, Esq., of New York City, and 2 volumes of the same from the Yale Alumni Association of St. Louis, which has now undertaken to supply these reports as issued, thus continuing the service rendered by Mr. Collier for many years; from the Connecticut State Library, the official documents and publications of the State for the year; from the Connecticut Reporter of Judicial Decisions, the Records and Briefs of the Supreme Court of the State for the year; from Charles E. Shepard of Seattle, the Record Commission Edition of Domesday Book; from Hon. George Shiras, Jr., upon his retirement from the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States, 187 volumes, including sets of the reports of the United States Circuit Courts of Appeals, Rose's Notes on the United States Reports, the Albany Law Journal, and the Twelfth Census of the United States; from the Yale Alumni Association of Michigan, a complete set of the Session Laws of the Territory and State of Michigan. We have also received by gift the current Statutes of Connecticut, Maryland, Texas, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New Jersey, with the Session Laws of the first three of the states named.

Other acquisitions are: a nearly complete set of the Annuaire de l'Institut de Droit International; and 12 volumes of papers concerning the Venezuela-British Guiana Boundary Arbitration.

Progress with the card catalogue has been delayed by frequent changes in the Library staff, which have handicapped the library work as a whole and involved the absence for half the year of the assistant, whose training made him especially useful for assistance in cataloguing and correspondence. During the year the Library hours were lengthened and made continuous from 8.30 A. M. to 10 P. M., an increase of over thirty hours per week. An additional assistant was employed on this account. The Library force now consists of the librarian and four student assistants. There is a gratifying increase in the use of the Library by the students out of proportion to their numbers.

Respectfully submitted,

PHILIP P. WELLS.
